The love of my life, my husband, my friend, and the better part of my heart, Thomas C. Steele, who has given me our "Happily Ever After" and lovingly reminds me that it's never too late to be what you might have been. Tom I love you with all my heart, not only for who you are, but also for who I am when I am with you.

My dear mother, Antonia Aiello Marchese, who instilled in me all the gentle graces that she so effortlessly possessed, and who continues to inspire all that is good in my heart.

To Antonia and Francesca Marchese, my darling nieces who gave me my "Aha Moment" and made me realize that small delights make great discoveries and that the world truly is filled with wonder.

To everyone that has shared a piece of my heart and given me the opportunity to live richly in love and friendship by sharing together so many wonderful memories, memories that will forever remain as precious gifts to my soul.

To Michelle Shain, and Katie Fogarty, my talented team who have worked endlessly in helping to bring my vision of pOckets to life, and who continue to remind me that any work done with joy is within itself a beautiful creation.
